

About the Director

Chris Dulin has been a French horn instructor for the past 30 years. He has placed hundreds of students in All-Region bands during that time, including over 40 All-State students. His students have received music scholarships to Julliard, Manhattan School of Music, Indiana University, USC, SMU, University of North Texas, DePaul University, and Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. He has been one of the top excellence horn players in the Dallas area since 1981. He is a member of the Dallas Opera Orchestra, Dallas Wind Symphony, and the Dallas Summer Musicals Orchestra. He has performed with a variety of artists from Van Cliburn and Luciano Pavarotti to Tony Bennett and Ray Charles. He has also played for such dignitaries as Queen Elizabeth II, Margaret Thatcher, and Henry Kissinger.

Hornfest 2011 is a music camp designed to help horn players improve their fundamental technique, and musicians through performing in horn ensembles. This is an opportunity for them to work on tone quality, intonation, blend, and cooperation skills for playing together as a horn section. The week will include rehearsals leading up to a concert the end of the week. The concert will be followed by a pizza party for the students and their families.

Location

Plano East Senior High School
 3000 Los Rios Blvd.
